RIDE-A-TEST

With Danielle Thomason

Danielle is a USDF bronze and silver medalist. Currently training with Leslie Reid and Shelley Lawder working towards Grand Prix. She trains and competes at the FEI levels and has students competing successfully throughout the inter mountain west. Danielle maintains a regular clinic schedule giving her experience in teaching a variety of horse and rider combinations.

Danielle has trained with international riders/trainers throughout the US and Europe. Most recently trained for 5 1/2 years with Lilo Fore, Roemer Foundation/USDF Hall of Fame inductee and FEI 5* star judge. While at Lilo's Danielle rode regularly in clinics with Conrad Schumacher.

Prior to moving to Bellingham, Danielle was based at Johann Hinnemann's California training facility. Danielle brings not only her wealth of knowledge from some of the most sought after dressage masters, but also a positive approach to creating a cohesive partnership with horse and rider.
